1. Legislation

1.1. Concept and Purpose

- 1.1.1. National Legislative meeting is the gathering of representatives of local and national executive teams to discuss changes to the national compendium.

1.2. The attendees of National Legislative Meetings shall consist, but not limited to:

- 1.2.1.1. National Legislation Chair
- 1.2.1.2. The MCP or a proxy
- 1.2.1.3. Minimum two MCVP
- 1.2.1.4. The LCP (or an LCVP as a proxy), LCVP FnL and one other LCVP or any member as their proxy.
- 1.2.1.5. National Legislation shall be presided over by a Chairperson who manages the flow of National Legislation and who has to be neutral when expressing themselves.

1.3. Quorum

- 1.3.1. The quorum for National Legislative Meetings shall be two-thirds (2/3) of the voting right entity. It is the duty of the Chair to ascertain that a quorum is present. If there is no quorum, the plenary is adjourned until a quorum is achieved.

1.4. Values to strive for

- 1.4.1. Respect: All participants of a legislative meeting should uphold the principles of respect for each other while participating in debate over various matters, this includes the use of parliamentary language as well.
- 1.4.2. Avoidance of Conflict of Interest: Keep the interest of AIESEC in Pakistan and all its LCs supreme while making decisions and avoid any myopic narrative that may only benefit themselves.
- 1.4.3. Strengthening the Institution over the Individual: No one person in AIESEC should be too powerful to be able to exploit their position. Individuals should have restraints to their powers in the form of accountability measures to ensure that any exploitation of power does not go unaccounted for. The national plenary of AIESEC in Pakistan should continually put an effort to strengthen various processes within the entity that are flexible enough to encourage innovation but not too loose to allow exploitation.
- 1.4.4. Represent and Participate: An LCP is elected by its general body members to represent its problems and challenges on a national level, they should strive to represent their local realities and participate in the best possible way during legislative meetings.

2. LCP Subcommittees
