

Corporate Social Responsibility.

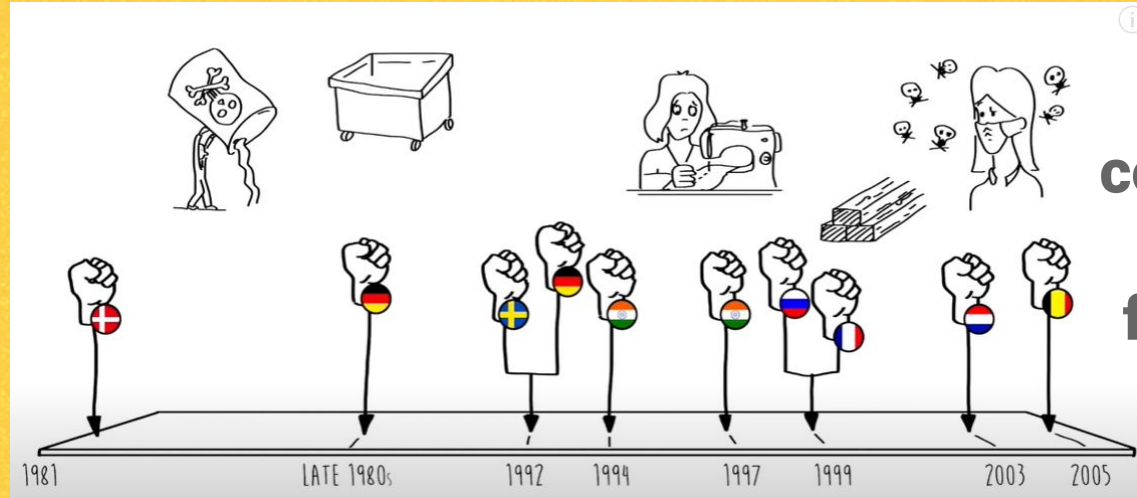

what is csr and why is it important?

Dangerous chemical use

Waste

Child labor

Poor
working conditions
in factories

IKEA

a huge financial crisis

This is not because IKEA is worse than the other corporates

Classic business models

Capturing opportunities

Neglecting risks

Howard Bowen

Social Responsibilities of the Businessman" in 1953

- 40% of consumers seek purposeful brands and trust in brands to act in the best interest of society
- 91% of millennials listed their company's commitment to the community on their decision to work there
- 94% of GEN Z they would take a pay cut to find work that matches their values and socially responsible

CSR ?

Capturing opportunities

Avoiding risks

CSR ?

- Self regulated business models that includes philanthropic and charitable contributions in their organizational policies
- Call to action to all the corporates to contributes to environmental issues such as climate change , toxic substances , plastic pollution and social problems like Literacy,Unemployment,Corruption...etc

Carroll's CSR pyramid

Be a good corporate citizen

Contribute resources to the community, improve quality of life

Be ethical

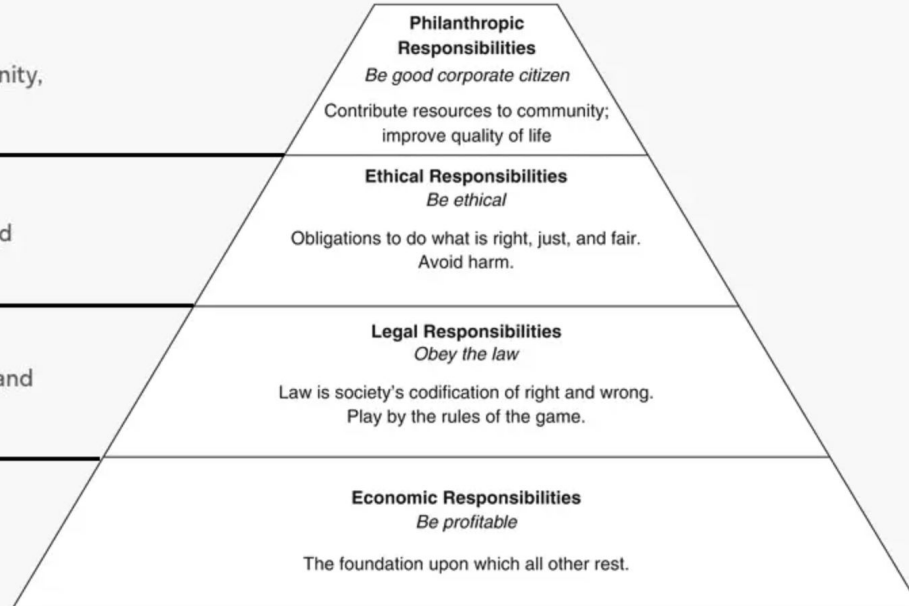

Obligation to do what is right, just and fair. Play by the rules of the game

Obey the law

Law is society's codification of right and wrong. Play by the rules of the game

Be profitable

The foundation upon which all others rest

main benefits:

increases employee engagement for companies more support for local and global communities.

opportunities and brand awareness.

increases customer retention and loyalty.

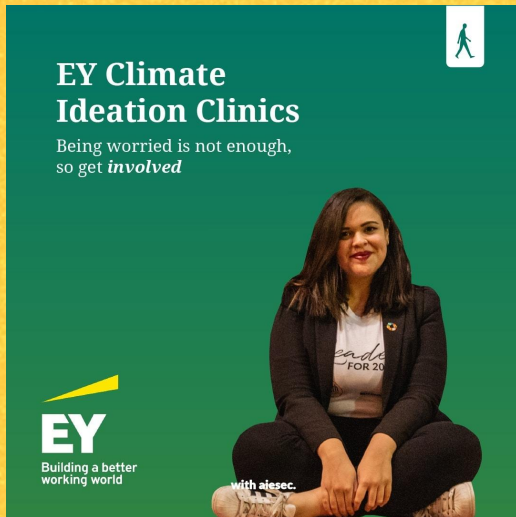

builds stronger employer brand.

it generates more profit with less efforts*

through CSR programs, businesses can benefit society while boosting their brands.

AIESEC x Ernst & Young

AIESEC x Electrolux Food Foundation

tips to sell a csr project to a potential partner.

enumerate the multiple csr benefits for their companies.

sales pitch aiming for a social change .

opt for a patient, pragmatic
approach

show metrics/results of current/past csr projects with global partners.

investigate on company's goals and interests.

Thank
you